Notes from the desk of the PROPERTY MANAGER:

Residents' Meeting

Finally, after three years we could again have our Residents' Meeting. The meeting was well attended and if I do say so, was enjoyed by all.

I do apologize for the difficulty hearing the report by John Amama. His report was more so we could remember residents who passed away during the past years, and since we were not able to have a meeting for three years, that list became extensive. We will be looking at ways to ensure that everyone will be able to hear and be part of that portion of the meeting.

Kevin Antonides gave a report on what has been happening with the West Lincoln Memorial Hospital Foundation. He showed us plans for the new hospital, which will be 85% larger than the present facility.

Dave VanSickle reported that even though the market is in a bit of a slump, the units at Evergreen still give a good return on investment.

Thanks were given to the many volunteers who do work at Evergreen and who serve on the various committees. It was noted that more volunteers are needed to help with servicing the fan coil units, which is done on a bi-annual basis. Thanks again to all who offer their services to Evergreen.

LAUGHTER

“A merry heart doeth good like a medicine.”

The squirrels must be expecting a cold winter.
They're gathering more nuts than usual.
Yesterday, my sister disappeared.

MOVIE NIGHT

Another evening has been set aside to show a movie in the Willow Room. The movie will be shown on the evening Friday November 25th. We hope that many residents will take this opportunity to come together for this social event. Remember the date: Friday, November 25th at 7:00 p.m.

WORDS of WISDOM

*Sometimes we need a bridge,
and sometimes we are the bridge.
No one I know has escaped troubled waters,
rough seas, and challenging, scary days.
There are times in our lives
when we could use a little help,
and other times when we are given the chance to be that help for someone else.
It really doesn't matter where you are right now.
What matters is that you remember
we are stronger together,
and taking a hand
is just as important as offering one.*

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES Committee:

The summer has just flown by, and we are already well into the fall season. That makes us all think about the end of the year.

The Social Activities Committee is starting to plan for a Christmas dinner on Friday, December 9th. Watch the bulletin boards for more information and a sign-up sheet.

Regarding New Years' Eve, we are looking for some volunteers to organize a get-together for Saturday, December 31st. If you are interested, please let any of the committee members know.

- A.P.

LIBRARY Committee:

Lately twenty-two new books have been received and placed on the shelves in the library. A sincere thanks to the donors.

Note that we do not screen the books for content or suitability. If you find a title to be offensive, please contact a committee member, and we will take your concern under advisement.

May the Lord watch between me and thee...
